MEETS DEATH

In Waters Of Lake Michigan
At Chicago.

MISS MARY WERNE, POPULAR SOCIETY GIRL OF LOUISVILLE—
MAY BE SUICIDE.

The body of Miss Mary F. Werne, of Louisville, was found in Lake Michigan near the Iowa building, in Jackson Park, Chicago, shortly before noon Tuesday. Four boys walking along the lake front discovered the body and gave the alarm.

For several hours the police worked on the theory that the girl might have been murdered. Her identity remained a mystery for several hours, but it was assumed that she was from some Southern city, as her shoes bore the mark of a St. Louis firm, while her hat was from a millinery house in Richmond, Va.

Relatives of Miss Werne in Louisville doubt that she took her own life and think she fell into the lake and was drowned while in a faint. For several weeks, before she was taken to Chicago for treatment, she had been with her sister, Mrs. Volney Bryar, at Wood. While there she had been found in the yard where she had swooned and fallen. Physicians who attended her here, Drs. Frank C. Simpson and John J. Moren, had no thought of mental derangement in her case, but said that her condition was due to nervous prostration.

Until the family was separated something more than a year ago, Miss Mary Field Werne was one of the most beautiful girls in Louisville, and very popular. There were few accounts of entertainments of the young people in which her name did not appear. Her sisters all having married, and her father, Henry L. Werne, formerly a leading jeweler in Louisville, having gone to Chicago where he is connected with the firm of Peacock & Co., she went to El Paso, Texas, where she spent some time with her sister, Mrs. Edward C. French.

Ready-to-Wear Garments

To Fit Any Woman.

C. Kagin & Bro. are making preparations for the biggest Women's Ready-to-Wear Business this coming fall ever done in their store's history.

C. Kagin, who has spent three weeks in New York City studying the fashion's trend, and searching the markets for the latest ideas and best creations in the way of women's and children's wear, has purchased from America's largest and most celebrated manufacturers of women's outer garments a tremendous stock of high class women's and misses suits, skirts and cloaks for fall wear.

The manufacturers of these garments employ only the highest skilled men tailors and designers and the new wear things that will soon be put on their way for Kagin's store will represent the greatest triumphs in the Art of Women's Tailoring.

It goes beyond saying that Kagin's Store will be headquarters for New York's best and most approved fashions, showing a variety and embracing such an array of styles as was never before attempted by any house in the city.

The prices will be in keeping with the low price policy of this store, and some surprises may be looked for in our department during the coming season.

Gets a Taste Of The Night Riders.

Umpire Harry Woods is ready to make affidavit that there are night riders in Madison county, and does not want to go through with any more such experiences as befell him last Wednesday at Richmond. His ump's officiated at the game there on that day between Lawrenceburg and the Pioneers and the Distillers took the Richmonds into camp with ease. It is said that Woods was fair and there were no kicks made during the entire game. About midnight his ump's was awakened by five masked men with drawn pistols and ordered to dress. A towel was tied over his mouth and his hands bound. He was then marched to the cemetery where he was told that he had his choice of leaving Richmond in five minutes or to remain in the city of the dead until old Gabriel blew his horn. It didn't take Woods long to decide. He left on the first train, and it is a safe bet to say that he will not return to Richmond any ways soon. The matter will probably be investigated by President Hammond.

Eighth District Row Among The Republicans.

Charging that the nomination of L. W. Bethurum for Congress by the District Convention had been secured by fraud and underground methods Judge T. M. Cardwell, of Harrodsburg, put the Republicans of the Eighth District on record as having been guilty of the same tactics charged to the Democrats in the famous Music Hall Convention in Louisville.

Judge Cardwell's was an impassioned speech lasting several minutes, in which he made the assertion that the convention had employed Redwine methods and that the Republicans were just as guilty of trickery as the Democrats, and appealed to the convention to nominate Brown Buford, of Jessamine county, for Congress after the nomination of Bethurum had been made, but the chair ruled that another vote could not be taken. Bethurum was nominated on the first ballot, he receiving ninety-seven votes and Buford thirty-six.

State Treasury Now Almost Empty.

The State Treasury has less money now than it had even two months ago, in spite of the holding up of many large warrants and the conservation of the finances of the State to the greatest possible degree. One thing that depleted the treasury was the calling by the State University of the $35,000 which was allowed it by the National Government. The university wanted the money, which had been in the bank here to the State's credit for several weeks, and it was paid over. Capt. E. Farley, State Treasurer, believes that he will have the State on its financial feet in a short time.
